Founded in 1985 by Stanford Engineering Professor Alan Adler, Aerobie™ has a rich heritage rooted in performance, innovation, and fun.
After noticing the shortcomings of other discs, Professor Adler set out to engineer the world's farthest throwing disc. The results: the Pro Ring went on to break the world record, soaring over 1,333 feet! This led to Aerobie's performance laden features in our full line of rings and discs. Aerobie is a world leader in performance flight.
